This session is my first after 14 years of pause as a model. I have been in abusive relationship so I didn't get the chance to be in front of the camera for a long time. I wrote a short story about this particular day ;)

“A quiet morning, the smell of freshly brewed coffee and a feeling of euphoria. Today is the day I will do something for myself. I've been waiting for it for years! I got ready and went out to meet the team. I was shooting for the first time in 14 years! Smiling , happy full of ease , like I haven't felt in a long time! I arrived at the studio. Putting on my underwear I stood in front of the mirror and for a second that voice appeared in my head: look at you! You're good for nothing, I momentarily remembered the face he used to make whenever he wanted to push me around. I felt the pain rising and sent a mental response for the first time in my life! Your words don't define me! I am not what you describe. I looked in the mirror once more, I smiled! Today is a new day, because I will not let the voice ruin the experience , that I was about to have. Today I am fulfilling my dream! I'm shooting again.”

This photoshoot is about a powerful woman who is in love with her life. She's sensual, she loves intellectual stimulation, she plays the cards she was dealt and her eyes speak in the portrait images because she's comfortable and knows her superpowers. She's in touch with herself. This is what makes her sexy.

Close to a lost place which used to be a well known finca on this remote island lies the Cavern of Light. Descending into this cavern makes changes to you and your body. You are leaving the hectic and fast pacing world. Spending time in this secluded place slows you down, takes your mind off things, enlightens you and re-charges your body to face the upcoming challenges that are waiting for you once you emerge from this silent and spiritual place. When are you coming down here?
